

The 5th International Conference of Phonology and Morphology

(July 3 ~ 5, Thursday ~ Saturday, 2014)

July 3 (Thursday): Chonnam National University
13:00~ 14:00	Registration Venue: Cosmas Hall, College of Engineering 4
14:00~ 14:10	Opening ceremony Venue: Cosmas Hall, College of Engineering 4 Moderator: Jinsung Lee (Incheon University, Korea) Opening remarks: Mira Oh (Chonnam National University, Korea, President, Korean Circle of Phonetics, Phonology, and Morphology)
14:10~ 15:10	Tutorial on Informational Theory I Venue: Cosmas Hall, College of Engineering 4	Robert Daland (UCLA, USA) Title: What is Informational Theory?	Moderator: Yongsoon Kang (Sungkyunkwan University)
15:10~ 15:30	Coffee Break
15:30~ 17:35	Session 1: Phonology Room: 117, College of Engineering 7 Chair: Hyun-Kee Ahn (Seoul National University, Korea), Discussant: Sechang Lee (Sookmyung University, Korea)	Session 2: Phonetics Room: 118 College of Engineering 7 Chair: Eunjung Kong (Korea Aerospace University, Korea)/ Discussant: Eunjin Oh (Ewha Womans University, Korea)
	Invited talk (15:30 ~ 16:20): Yasuhi Terao (University of Shizuoka, Japan) Phonological/phonetic factors in sound exchange speech errors and their theoretical implications	15:30~15:55 Suzy Ahn (New York University, USA) Korean Speakers' Knowledge of Similarity and Salience: An Experimental Study of Imperfect Overlapping
		15:55~16:20 Mathilde Hutin (Paris VIII UMR 7023, France) Can release burst be responsible for epenthesis? - A case study on Korean
	16:20~16:45 Tae-Jin Yoon (Cheongju University, Korea) Entropy minimization rather than phonological optimization	16:20~16:45 Miyeon Ahn (Seoul National University, Korea) Perceptual adaptation in cross language speech perception
	16:45~17:10 Shigeko Shinohara (Sophia University, Japan) Japanese rendition patterns of Korean words and phrases	16:45~ 17:10 Yunyi Ma (East China Normal University, China) A Physiological Account to the Absence of Feature [spread] in Flat Handshape
	17:05~17:30 Sung-Hoon Hong (Hankuk University of Foreign Studies, Korea) & Sunwoo Park (Keimyung University, Korea) Korean reduced words from the perspective of Information Theory	17:10~17:35 Hitomi Onuma, Kuniya Nasukawa &amp; Phillip Backley (Tohoku Gakuin University, Japan) Place-of-articulation-sensitive VOT values in L2 acquisition
17:35~ 19:30	Reception Venue: Hatteulmaru Restaurant on campus

July 4 (Friday): Chonnam National University
9:00~ 10:00	Tutorial on Informational Theory II Venue: Cosmas Hall, College of	Beth Hume (University of Canterbury, New Zealand)	Moderator: Sung-Hoon Hong

	Engineering 4	Title: Application of Informational Theory to Phonetics and Phonology (Hankook University of Foreign Studies, Korea)
10:00~12:05	Session 3: Phonology Room: 117, College of Engineering 7 Chair: An-Nah Moon (Inha University, Korea)/ Discussant: Mihee Cho (Kyeonggi University, Korea)	Session 4: Phonology/Morphology Room: 118, College of Engineering 7 Chair: Minkyung Lee (Daegu University, Korea)/ Discussant: Seung-Hoon Shin (Yongnam University, Korea)
	Invited talk (10:00~10:50) Isao Ueda (University of Osaka, Japan) On the Nature of Functional Misarticulation in Japanese	10:00~10:25 Chihkai Lin (University of Hawaii at Manoa, USA) Interaction of Tone Sandhi and Morphology in Mandarin An OT-Account
	10:50~11:15 Dongmyung Lee (Dona-A University, Korea) The ongoing vowel shortening phenomenon in North Kyungsang Korean	10:25~10:50 Jaehyeok Choi (Hankuk University of Foreign Studies, Korea) Unifying consonant lenition and vowel reduction
	11:15~11:40 Eiji Yamada (Fukuoka University, Japan) Treatment of Extrametricality in Positional Function Theory	10:50~11:15 Shengyun Gu (East China Normal University, China) A Harmonic Serialism Analysis of Quarter-Syllabic (2+2) Tone Sandhi in Shaoxing Chinese
	11:40~12:05 Marc Tang &amp; Jin Yan Lin (National Chengchi University, Taiwan) A study of Sound Symbolism: Is i small enough to be big?	11:15~11:40 Haowen Jiang (Rice University, USA) & Loren Billings (National Chi Nan University, Taiwan) Case closed: Positionally conditioned pronoun allomorphy (+ an inverse clitic) in Rikavung Puyuma
		11:40~12:05 Ethelbert Emmanuel Kari &amp; Budzani Mogara (University of Botswana, Botswana) The clitic nature of PGN markers in Naro
12:05~13:10	Lunch
13:10~14:10	Session 5 (Poster) Venue: Outside the Hall of College of Engineering 7 Chair: Youngsik Hwangbo (Sungkyul University, Korea)  (1) Ponghyung Lee (Daejeon University, Korea) Testing the correlations between loanword transmission and phonetic perception (2) Yongsoon Kang (Sungkyunkwan University, Korea) Predicting English Stress: Pronunciation or Spelling? (3) Sejin Oh & Yongeun Lee (Chung-Ang University, Korea) Phonetic convergence in spontaneous English speech: Focusing on the Diapix task experiment (4) Nayoung Park (Seoul National University, Korea) Phonotactics in Native and Sino Korean (5) Eungyeong Kang (Sangmyung University, Korea) Blending and emergence of new morphemes. (6) Jae-Ick Park (Kosin University, Korea) The ongoing lenition of aspirated obstruents in Korean: Evidence from the speakers of three dialects (7) Hyo-young Kim (Kookmin University, Korea) English stress and the lexicon. (8) Kwanyoung Oh (Chonnam University, Korea) A phonological approach to the contextual variances of the English lateral /l/ (9) Yi-hsiu Lai (National University of Kaohsiung, Taiwan) Quantitative Analysis of Hakka Vowels and Comparison of Vowel Normalization process (10) Juhee Lee (Kyunghee University, Korea), Koonhyuk Byun (Hankuk University of Foreign Studies, Korea) & Sang-Cheol Ahn (North-Eastern Federal University, Russia) On the loan adaptation of Russian obstruents in Korean (11) Muftah B. Eldeeb (University of Almergeb, Libya) The acquisition of derivational morphology by Arab learners of English: V>N derivation (12) Mira Oh (Chonnam University, Korea) & Heejo Kang (Chosun University, Korea) Word-initial tensification and laryngeal cooccurrence restriction in Korean (13) Yunmi Myeong (Dong-A University, Korea) A Study on South Kyungsang Korean Native Speakers's Acquisition of English High Vowels

14:10~15:10	Lecture I Venue: Cosmas Hall, College of Engineering 4	Robert Daland (UCLA, USA) Title: TBA	Moderator: Minjung Son (Hannam University, Korea)
15:10~	Tour (including dinner)

July 5 (Saturday): Chonnam National University
09:00~10:15	Session 8: Phonology Room: 117, College of Engineering 7 Chair: Jongho Jun (Seoul National University, Korea)/ Discussant: Seung-Hoon Shin (Yongnam University, Korea)		Session 9: Phonetics Room: 118, College of Engineering 7 Chair: Miran Kim (Korea University, Korea)/ Discussant: Eunkyung Sung (Cyber Hankuk University of Foreign Studies, Korea)
	09:00~09:50 Invited talk: Shin-ichi Tanaka (University of Tokyo, Japan)		09:00~09:25 Yoonsook Mo (Kwangju Institute of Technology, Korea) Prosody Perception: Syntagmatic vs. Paradigmatic normalization
	09:50~10:15 Yongsung Lee (Busan University of Foreign Studies, Korea) Constraint combinations and phonological opacity		09:25~09:50 Ming Ming Grace Leung (Hong Kong Shue Yan University, Hong Kong) Phonetic Variation of English Dental Fricatives by Hong Kong Cantonese
			09:50~10:15 Suyeon Yun (MIT, USA) Audible release matters in cluster-dependent epenthesis asymmetry
10:15~10:30	break
10:30~11:45	Session 11: Phonology Room: 117, College of Engineering 7 Chair: Isao Ueda (University of Osaka, Japan) Discussant: Hyungsook Sohn (Kyungbuk National University, Korea)		Session 12: Phonology Room: 118, College of Engineering 7 Chair: Eiji Yamada (Fukuoka University, Japan) Discussant: Kwan-Hee Yoon (Daegu University, Korea)
	10:30~10:55 Clements Poppe (University of Tokyo, Japan) Phonological weight distinctions across Japanese dialects and their implications		10:30~10:55 Hideo Kobayashi (Osaka Prefecture University, Japan) Schwa epenthesis positioning and syllable contact within Optimality theory
	10:55~11:20 Julien Eychenne (Hankuk University of Foreign Studies, Korea) Learning suprasegmental structure in a dynamic linear model by expectation maximization		10:55~11:20 Tsung-Hsien Peter Li (National Tsing Hua University, Taiwan) An Optimality Theory Account of Vowel Centralization in Maryinax Atayal
	11:20~11:45 Yanyan Sui (Nankai University, China) The Metrical Structure in Standard Chinese		11:20~11:45 Temitope Olumuyiwa (Adekunle Ajasin University, Nigeria) Vowel Assimilation in Ekiti Dialects of Yoruba Language
11:45~12:45	Lunch
12:45~13:45	Session 10 (Poster) Venue: Outside the Hall of College of Engineering 7

	Chair: Hyo-Young Kim (Kookmin University, Korea) (1) Elizabeth Hume, Ji In Kim, Darcy Rose, &amp; Patrick LaShell (University of Canterbury, New Zealand) The Influence of Word Position on Vowel Epenthesis in Korean (2) Gyung-Ho Kim and Jeong-Im Han (Konkuk University, Korea) Lexical effects in the perception of English allophones by Korean learners (3) Jiaoxiao Xue &amp; Joo-Kyeong Lee (University of Seoul, Korea) Native and non-native listeners' sensitivity to pitch in the evaluation of foreign accent (4) Hayeon Jang (Seoul National University, Korea) Nasal Consonant Epenthesis before Obstruent in Korean (5) Yang Hui &amp; Mira Oh (Chonnam National University, Korea) Adaptation of English fricatives into Mandarin Chinese (6) Ju-Eun Lee (Hankuk University of Foreign Studies, Korea) Historical development of English negative prefixes: a corpus-based study (7) Yuna Lee (Seoul National University, Korea) Consonant Harmony as Markedness Preservation (8) Hyunkyung Yu, Gukin Cho, &amp; Jinmyung Lee (Chonnam National University, Korea) Aspect of aspiration between onset and coda: focusing on realization by native speaker (9) Miryung Kim &amp; Jaegu Kang (Korea Soongsil Cyber University, Korea) A comparative analysis of automated and manual measurement on H1-H2 for three Korean stops (10) Ching-Pong, Au (Community College of City University) &amp; Yuk-Man Cheung (Hong Kong Baptist University, Hong Kong) Phonological Tendencies in Korean Spoken by Hong Kong Learners (11) Suhyeon Lim (Dong-A University, Korea) A Study on South Kyungsang Middle School Students' Perception of English High Vowels (12) Hyejin Hwang &amp; Dahee Kim (Yonsei University, Korea) Effects of elicitation method on the production of English tense and lax vowels (13) Hyung Martin (Hankuk University of Foreign Studies, Korea) Toward a more dynamic and functional Romanization of Korean: TrueKor
13:45~15:00	Session 11: Phonology Room: 117, College of Engineering 7 Chair: Hyunjoo Kim (SUNY-Korea, Korea)/ Discussant: Eunjoo Han (Seoul Women's University, Korea)		Session 12: Phonology/Morphology Room: 118, College of Engineering 7 Chair: Won-Don Chung (Semyung University, Korea)/ Discussant: Inkie Chung (Sogang University, Korea)
	13:45~14:10 Philip M. Imoh (Nasarawa State University, Nigeria) Verbal Extensions: Valency Increasing Operations in Bassa Verbal System		13:45~14:10 Sha Liu (Fukuoka University, Japan) The Order among Positional Functions in the Positional Function Theory
	14:10~14:35 Daiki Hashimoto (University of Tokyo, Japan) Standardization of a tonal system in Aizu-Japanese		14:10~14:35 Jin-Wan Jung (Chonbuk National University, Korea) Morpho-phonologically conditioned vowel epenthesis in English
	14:35~15:00 Changkook Suh (Baeksuk University, Korea) Middle Korean consonants 'k', 'h', and 'ŋ': Their alternations and historical change
15:00~16:00	Lecture II Venue: Room 100, College of Engineering 2	Beth Hume (Canterbury University, New Zealand) Title: Uncertainty as an Organizing Principle of Phonology	Moderator: Misun Suh (Hannam University, Korea)
16:00~16:10	break
16:10~16:30	Closing ceremony Venue: Young Myeong Hall, College of Engineering 2 Moderator: Joo-Kyeong Lee (University of Seoul, Korea) Closing remarks: Hyong-Yeob Kim (Korea University, Korea, Vice President, Korean Circle of Phonetics, Phonology, and Morphology)
